2022 Spring Conference

Call for Sessions and Speakers

Springfield IL

March 17-19, 2022

Unraveling our Past and Moving Forward: Discovering our 21st Century Voice

Join us in the “Land of Lincoln” as we look for ways to break the patterns of our past practices to find solutions for operations, programming, and interpretation as we charge headlong into the third decade of the 21st century. Sessions will address pandemic recovery, cultural institutions and the Green movement, practices for a healthy planet, social equality and economic opportunity.

The conference organizers seek speakers, session and workshop proposals relevant to this broad theme. Session topics may include, but are not limited to:

- Challenges, solutions and/or issues for institutions relating to any of the following
 - The pandemic
 - The Green Movement
 - A healthy planet
 - Social equality
 - Changing economic environment
 - Dealing with controversial topics
- Interpretation and Audience changes, challenges and successes
- Topics related to the successful operations of living history museums
- Programming in the Present and Future in our new social climate
- Staffing and volunteer issues
- Working with Schools and Students
- Working with boards, administrations, staff and community
- Marketing in a changing digital world
- STEM/STEAM programming
- Historic crafts, trades and classes
- Managing collections
- Disaster Planning and Preparedness

Session proposals should be submitted not later than Nov 15, 2021
