

Midwest Open Air Museums Magazine

Submission Guidelines

Midwest Open Air Museums Magazine is the printed publication for MOMCC and Midwest ALHFAM members. Articles, reviews, monographs and opinion pieces that reflect the diverse practical, research and activity interests of the membership are welcome. These may relate to museum and historic site concerns, historical research, skill development in historic trades and domestic arts, interpretive techniques, living history practice, farming, rural industries, historic houses, collections, historic administration and a host of other topics. As planning and formatting for each issue proceeds, sometimes articles are added or shifted to another issue depending on the space available. Submissions are welcome any time before, and sometimes after the stated deadlines.

- Articles: Range in length from 1 to 6 pages, single-spaced, 11-point, Times New Roman, plus up to six photographs or illustrations. Average word count: 1,500-3,500.
- Reviews: Books, websites, audio recordings, DVDs, exhibits, or performances are all welcome to be reviewed. Review length is 1 to 2 pages, single-spaced, 11-point, Times New Roman. Average word count: 500-1,500.
- Documentation: Articles should be foot-noted as appropriate and a bibliography or list of sources provided following the MOMCC style sheet which may be found on the MOMCC website: www.momcc.org, or emailed upon request. The MOMCC style sheet follows the Chicago Manual of Style.
- About the Author: Author should provide a short bio and current photo for inclusion at the end of the article.
- Submissions: should be made to: Tom Vance, editor, at tsevance@mchsi.com in MS Word. Photos should be submitted in JPG format. Email or call 217-549-1845 with any questions.
